

Memorial Stadium History

Nebraska's continuing NCAA record of consecutive home sellouts reached 289 with seven home sellouts in 2007.

During that time, the historic stadium has gone through many transformations, including unveiling the newest additions to Memorial Stadium before the 2006 season. More than 6,500 seats were added to the stadium's North end, along with a massive HuskerVision screen and Skyline Suites. The additions sit atop the Osborne Athletic Complex, which houses the Huskers' technologically advanced athletic medicine facility, massive weight room, and sparkling new football locker room, football offices and administrative offices. The first phase of the project also provided the Huskers with a second indoor workout facility, the Hawks Championship Center.

The additions pushed Nebraska's capacity above 80,000 for the first time, and in the 2006 season finale, a Memorial Stadium record crowd of 85,800 witnessed the Huskers' triumph over Colorado.

Nebraska's average home attendance for 2007 was 84,501, as nearly 592,000 fans watched the Huskers in Memorial Stadium last year. Overall, nearly one million fans saw the Huskers in person last year.

NU's streak of consecutive sellouts started on Nov. 3, 1962, when 36,501 attended the Homecoming game against Missouri. The last non-sellout came Oct. 20, 1962, when NU and Kansas State drew 30,701.

In the fall of 1922, a drive for $430,000 in stadium construction funds was undertaken by faculty, students, alumni and friends of the University. The quota was over subscribed.

The stadium was named Memorial Stadium to honor all Nebraskans who served in the Civil and Spanish-American Wars; the 751 Nebraskans who died in World War I; the 3,839 in World War II; the 225 in Korea; the 422 in Vietnam; and those in Iraq. Construction was completed in a few more than 90 working days and Memorial Stadium was dedicated on Oct. 20, 1923, at the Homecoming game in which Nebraska was held to a scoreless tie by Kansas.

Inscribed on the four corners of the stadium are the following words, written by former UNL professor of philosophy Hartley Burr Alexander:

Southeast: "In Commendation of the men of Nebraska who served and fell in the Nations Wars."

Southwest: "Not the victory but the action; Not the goal but the game; In the deed the glory."

Northwest: "Courage; Generosity; Fairness; Honor; In these are the true awards of manly sport."

Northeast: "Their Lives they held their countrys trust; They kept its faith; They died its heroes."

As part of the continuing improvement of athletic facilities at the University of Nebraska, several major projects have been completed throughout the past 80 years enhancing the facility. The $1 million Hewit Center dining/study hall area was opened in March of 1985, underneath the West Stadium adjacent to the strength complex. The weight room and the Hewit Center were expanded and remodeled in 1989.

Before the fall of 1994, NU installed two 17 feet high, by 23 feet wide replay boards, now known to Nebraska faithful as HuskerVision screens. In 2006, one of the largest screens in a college venue was unveiled as part of the new construction project.

Following the 1997 season, construction began on a $36-million improvement project completed in 1999. The project included the Don Bryant Media Facility and 42 suites, each of which house 25 fans. Club seating rose from approximately 350 to 1,500 per game. The improvement project tripled the number of restrooms on both the East and West sides of the stadium, doubled the number of concessions in both East and West concourses and included concrete repair and waterproofing throughout the stadium. FieldTurf was also introduced at Memorial Stadium in 1999. The renovations raised the capacity of Memorial Stadium from 72,700 to 73,918.

Memorial Stadium has been the home of the Huskers since 1923. Nebraska, which owns an impressive 362-110-13 record and a .760 winning percentage at Memorial Stadium, enters its 86th home season at the historic stadium. Memorial Stadium has been sold out for an NCAA-record 289 straight games entering 2008.

85 Years In Memorial Stadium

For the past 85 years, Nebraska football teams have gladly called Memorial Stadium home with an impressive 362-110-13 (.760) record posted by the Huskers in their home since it was opened in 1923.

Under the Lights

Nebraska's first night football game was Nov. 30, 1951, at Miami's Orange Bowl when the Huskers lost to the Miami Hurricanes, 19-7. Ironically, NU's first night football home game came in the 1986 opener against another team from the "Sunshine State," Florida State. Nebraska is 65-23-3 all time under the lights, including 23-3 at home.

► Nebraska saw the end of a 47-game home winning streak in 1998, with a 20-16 loss to Texas. The 47-game streak is the longest in school history and the fifth-longest in NCAA history, falling 11 victories shy of Miami's all-time mark of 58 consecutive home victories from 1985 to 1994. The Huskers followed the Texas loss with 26 straight wins at Memorial Stadium, before a 27-24 win by the Longhorns in 2002.

► Nebraska owns a 120-14 record at Memorial Stadium in the past 20 years (1988-2007), and posted a 56-3 mark in the 1990s.

► Since 1980, Nebraska has posted a 164-21 record at Memorial Stadium. Included in that stretch are four of the seven longest home winning streaks in school history – a 47-game streak from 1991 to 1998; a 26-game streak from 1998 to 2002; a 21-game streak from 1981 to 1984; and a 19-game streak from 1988 to 1990.

► Nebraska has posted 40 unbeaten and untied home seasons, including nine since 1990 and 13 since 1980.

► Of Nebraska's 21 home losses since 1980, 10 have come against teams that finished the season ranked in the top six in the Associated Press poll, including two teams that won the national championship.
