2007 OUTLOOK

Senior Terre (pronounced Tee-AIR) Green is set to complete his career as an extremely versatile performer for the Huskers. Green has played a key role at three different positions over the past three seasons and figures to be a prominent player for the Blackshirts in 2007.

An unselfish player, Green began his career on offense at I-back. He switched to defense in 2005 and earned a starting nod at cornerback before sliding over to safety for the 2006 campaign.

Green started all 14 games at strong safety in 2006 and enters fall camp as a leading contender for a starting role at safety. His versatility allows Green to play either safety position, and he is one of three returning starters in the NU secondary, joining senior corners Courtney Grixby and Andre Jones.

Overall, Green has played in each of Nebraska's 37 games over the past three seasons with 24 career starts. Green possesses great speed and has also played a key role as a kickoff return man the past three years.

The 6-1, 200-pound Green tied for fourth on the team with 65 total tackles in 2006, including 37 solo stops. His play helped the Huskers rank in the top 25 nationally in scoring defense, and Green earned honorable-mention All-Big 12 accolades from the Associated Press for his efforts.

Green started seven games at cornerback in 2005, then was the first defensive back off the bench in the final five games. He was also one of NU's top kickoff returners, averaging 24.8 yards per attempt.

Green began his career as a running back and kick returner. In 2004, he was a reserve I-back and earned three starts. An Omaha native, Green redshirted and made a strong impression on the scout team in 2003. A sociology major, Green is scheduled to graduate this December.

2006 (JUNIOR)

Green finished the season with six games of five or more tackles, including a season-high seven tackles three times. He opened the season with 14 tackles in the first three games, then posted back-to-back seven-tackle efforts against Kansas and Iowa State to open Big 12 play. Against the Jayhawks, Green also recorded a tackle for loss and had a fumble recovery.

Green tied his season high with seven tackles against fifth-ranked Texas. A week later he had five tackles and recorded his first career interception against Oklahoma State, returning the first-quarter pick 15 yards. He added six tackles a week later in Nebraska's key North Division win over Missouri.

The Omaha native also played a role on special teams. He returned three kickoffs for 59 yards and was a member of Nebraska's kickoff and punt coverage teams.

2005 (SOPHOMORE)

Green played a key role in a re-tooled secondary that featured three new starters. He started the first seven games at the weak corner spot and finished the year with 29 tackles, including 19 solo stops, and had four breakups. He also averaged 24.8 yards on nine kickoff returns.

Green opened the year with four tackles and a pair of breakups against Maine. He had a season-high six tackles, including five solo stops, in a double-overtime victory over Iowa State, and made five tackles against both Pitt and Missouri. In the return game, he had a 43-yard return in the season opener vs. Maine, and added a career-long 45-yard return vs. Iowa State. Six of Green's nine returns went at least 22 yards. He also played on NU's kickoff coverage, punt return and punt teams.

2004 (REDSHIRT FRESHMAN)

Green played in all 11 games, sharing the No. 2 I-back position with freshman Brandon Jackson. Green earned starts against Pittsburgh, Kansas State and Colorado, when NU opened in multiple-back sets. He finished the year with 44 carries for 284 yards, an average of 6.5 yards per carry.

He rushed for 112 yards in the opener against Western Illinois, the most rushing yards by a Husker in a varsity debut since 1973. Green also had 26 kickoff returns for 498 yards, an average of 19.2 yards per return. He totaled a season-high 214 all-purpose yards against Southern Miss.

2003 (REDSHIRT)

Green redshirted and worked on the scout team.

BEFORE NEBRASKA (OMAHA BENSON HS)

Green earned first-team Class A all-state honors from the Omaha World-Herald as a senior when he had 63 tackles, including 50 solos, for Omaha Benson. He was also a second-team All-Nebraska pick by the World-Herald. He returned one interception for a touchdown and also forced a pair of fumbles. The World-Herald also picked him as first-team All-Metro as a defensive back.

Green also rushed for 627 yards for Coach Lonnie Tapp, while scoring eight touchdowns. Green's top game as a senior came against Omaha North, when he rushed for 158 yards and three touchdowns, totaled 130 kickoff return yards, returned an interception for a touchdown and made eight tackles. He helped the Bunnies to a pair of playoff appearances as a sophomore and junior. In addition to Nebraska, Green received a scholarship offer from Iowa State. Green was also a four-year member of Benson's track team.

PERSONAL

Tierre is the son of Lisa Conway and was born on Feb. 4, 1985. He is the cousin of former Husker and current Houston Texan Ahman Green and NU freshman Niles Paul. Terre's uncle, Michael, also played for NU, lettering in 1968 and 1969. Terre has volunteered his time as part of Nebraska's team hospital visits in Lincoln and Omaha. He is also a member of the Your Degree First program.
