A four-year starter from 1947 to 1950, Bob Cerv led NU to a pair of Big Seven titles in his Husker career. The Weston, Neb., native earned first-team All-America honors from the ABCA in 1950 after batting .444 – an average that still ranks fifth on NU single-season charts – with nine homers and 36 RBIs. He displayed tremendous power, leading the nation with an .878 slugging percentage in 1950, helping the Huskers to a Big Seven Conference title and an appearance in the NCAA playoffs.

Don Brown became the second Husker to receive first-team All-America honors from the ABCA, leading the Huskers to a 12-8 record and a second-place finish in the Big Seven Conference. A two-year letterwinner who led the Huskers in hitting both seasons, the Omaha, Neb., native batted .446 as a senior, leading NU in RBIs (19), setting a school record with his .930 slugging percentage. His .569 on-base percentage as a junior was the second best in school history, while he also ranks in the top five in doubles, triples and homeruns despite playing only three seasons for Nebraska. The Park Forest, Ill., native became the first Husker ever drafted in the first round of the MLB Draft, as the No. 11 player selected by the San Francisco Giants.

Gene Stohs capped his career by earning first-team All-America honors from The Sporting News in 1972. A four-year letterwinner who led the Huskers in hitting both seasons, the Omaha, Neb., native batted .446 as a senior, leading NU in RBIs (19), hits (37) and total bases (58). His .446 average ties for fourth-highest in school history. For his efforts, he was a two-time team MVP.

Steve Stanicek had one of the finest seasons in school history in 1982 en route to first-team All-America honors from Baseball America. He hit .449 with 20 home runs and 70 RBIs, while setting a school record with his .930 slugging percentage. His .569 on-base percentage as a junior was the second best in school history, while he also ranks in the top five in doubles, triples and homersons despite playing only three seasons for Nebraska. The Park Forest, Ill., native became the first Husker ever drafted in the first round of the MLB Draft, as the No. 11 player selected by the San Francisco Giants.

Paul Meyers capped a stellar Husker career by earning All-America honors from The Sporting News in 1986. As a senior, he batted .347 with 85 hits, 20 doubles and 66 RBIs. He finished the season with a .629 slugging percentage and tied a school record with 10 RBIs against Missouri Western. A career .350 hitter, Meyers’ productive career etched his name in the NU record books, as he ranks second with 209 RBIs, fifth with 250 hits and is also in the top 10 in both homersons and total bases. Meyers was selected by the San Francisco Giants in the fourth round of the 1986 MLB Draft.

Troy Brohawn enjoyed the finest season ever by a Husker pitcher en route to first-team All-America honors from Collegiate Baseball. The southpaw from Woolford, Md., went 13-0 with a 3.16 ERA, striking out a then-school record 123 batters in 111.1 innings. He tossed nine complete games and struck out 10 or more hitters in six outings. The second Husker to ever earn first-team All-Big Eight honors at two positions, Brohawn batted .329 with three homersons and 34 RBIs while playing first base. He was selected by the San Francisco Giants in the fourth round of the 1994 MLB Draft.

First baseman Ken Harvey earned consensus first-team All-America honors in 1999, leading the Huskers to a Big 12 Tournament title and an NCAA appearance. He led the nation with a .478 average, while hitting 23 homersons and driving in 86 runs. Although he made his name on offense, Harvey was the Easton Redline Defensive Player of the Year after committing just two errors in 1999. A career .426 hitter, Harvey was selected in the fifth round of the 1999 MLB Draft by the Kansas City Royals.

Marc Sagmoen etched his name in the record books at NU, capping his career with first-team All-America accolades in 1993 from Collegiate Baseball, USBA, NCBWA and the ABCA. He set the NU career mark with a .451 average during his two seasons, breaking the old mark by over 80 points. As a senior, he hit .454 with 18 homersons and 79 RBIs, as he ranked fifth nationally in hitting and fourth in slugging percentage (.859). He was a 10th-round selection by the Texas Rangers in the 1994 MLB Draft.

16 Huskers Have Produced 18 First-Team All-America seasons (46 First-Team Certificates)

Don Brown became the second Husker to receive first-team All-America honors from the ABCA, leading the Huskers to a 12-8 record and a second-place finish in the Big Seven Conference. A two-year letterwinner who led the Huskers in hitting both seasons, the Omaha, Neb., native batted .446 as a senior, leading NU in RBIs (19), hits (37) and total bases (58). His .446 average ties for fourth-highest in school history. For his efforts, he was a two-time team MVP.

Paul Meyers capped a stellar Husker career by earning All-America honors from The Sporting News in 1986. As a senior, he batted .347 with 85 hits, 20 doubles and 66 RBIs. He finished the season with a .629 slugging percentage and tied a school record with 10 RBIs against Missouri Western. A career .350 hitter, Meyers’ productive career etched his name in the NU record books, as he ranks second with 209 RBIs, fifth with 250 hits and is also in the top 10 in both homersons and total bases. Meyers was selected by the San Francisco Giants in the fourth round of the 1986 MLB Draft.

Troy Brohawn enjoyed the finest season ever by a Husker pitcher en route to first-team All-America honors from The Sporting News in 1972. A four-year letterwinner and an All-Big Eight selection, he batted .369, while leading the Huskers in hits (39), runs scored (22), doubles (7) and stolen bases (12). Stohs struck out just three times in 106 at-bats. Stohs also holds the distinction of being NU baseball’s first two-time CoSIDA Academic All-American, earning second-team honors in 1970 and 1972.

First baseman Ken Harvey earned consensus first-team All-America honors in 1999, leading the Huskers to a Big 12 Tournament title and an NCAA appearance. He led the nation with a .478 average, while hitting 23 homersons and driving in 86 runs. Although he made his name on offense, Harvey was the Easton Redline Defensive Player of the Year after committing just two errors in 1999. A career .426 hitter, Harvey was selected in the fifth round of the 1999 MLB Draft by the Kansas City Royals.
The first two-time first-team All-American in school history, Shane Komic was a first-team All-America selection in 2000 and 2001. He posted records of 11-4 as a sophomore and 14-2 in 2001, helping NU to back-to-back 50-win seasons. A two-time Big 12 Pitcher of the Year, Komine struck out a school-record 159 batters in 2000. He holds school records for wins (41), strikeouts (510) and innings pitched (431.0), while his strikeout total ranked fifth in NCAA history. A second-team CoSIDA Academic All-American as a senior, Komine was drafted in the ninth round by the Oakland Athletics in 2002.

John Cole helped NU to three straight NCAA tournaments and a Big 12 title in 2001. The 5-11, 185-pounder batted .382 with 23 homers, 51 RBIs and led the team with 25 stolen bases. The District VI Player of the Year by the NCBWA, he tied a school record with 109 hits, while his eight triples ranked second on NU's charts. A two-time MLB draftee, Leise concluded his Husker career ranked second in both hits (305) and runs scored (210). A two-time CoSIDA Academic All-American, Leise was chosen as the Baseball Academic All-American of the Year in both 2002 and 2003.

Matt Hopper capped an amazing sophomore campaign by earning first-team All-America honors from The Sporting News in 2001. The 6-4, 215-pound designated hitter batted .358 with 12 homers and 85 RBIs, a total that ranked third nationally, to help the Huskers to a Big 12 title and a College World Series appearance. A career .350 hitter, Hopper finished his career as the school and Big 12 all-time leader in homers (64), RBIs (271), hits (338) and runs scored (246). The 2003 Big 12 Player of the Year, Hopper was a 10th-round pick by the Philadelphia Phillies in 2003.

Jed Morris slugged his way to consensus first-team All-America honors in 2002. The catcher from Seabrook, Texas, batted .382 with 23 homers and tied school marks with 26 doubles and 90 RBIs. Morris was the 2002 Big 12 Player of the Year and one of three finalists for the ABCA National Player-of-the-Year Award. A two-time Big 12 Player of the Week, Morris earned national player-of-the-week honors from Collegiate Baseball, when he homered in five consecutive games. Morris finished his career among the top 10 in batting average (.367, ninth) and slugging percentage (.674, eighth).

Alex Gordon was the second Husker to be named a two-time, first-team All-American, earning the honor in 2004 and 2005. A two-time Big 12 Player of the Year, Gordon hit .365 with 18 homers and 75 RBIs as a sophomore. He ranked in the top four in the Big 12 in nine offensive categories in 2004, including league highs in slugging percentage, on-base percentage and triples while ranking second in homers and third in RBIs. The most decorated player in Nebraska baseball history, Gordon won the Dick Howser, Brooks Wallace and Golden Spikes Award in 2005, leading the Huskers to a Big 12 title and CWS appearance. He hit .372 with 19 homers and 66 RBIs, ranking in the top 10 in the Big 12 in all 12 offensive categories. He topped the league in six categories, including runs scored, slugging percentage and on-base percentage. Gordon was the No. 2 overall pick in the 2005 MLB First-Year Player Draft by the Kansas City Royals. He was a Gold Glove award winner in left field for Kansas City in 2011, 2012, 2013 and 2014. Gordon lead the Royals to the World Series in 2014, and then was a vital part of the team’s World Series title in 2015.
